Sunday Memo FROM OUR PASTOR

On Thursday, July 21st, Fr. Verhoye’s Funeral Mass was celebrated and his body was laid to rest. It reminds us how blessed we are to have our Catholic Faith and what a tremendous consolation and means for God’s grace and mercy for the repose of the soul of Fr. Verhoye as well as those who entered into a spirit of prayer over these days. A word of thanks to those who assisted with the Mass: the choir and musicians, the servers, Deacon Simon, the readers. The Bishop was very complimentary about the beautiful liturgy. Thank you to those who kept vigil with Father during his wake. Thank you to the members of the Altar & Rosary Society, Circle 2 members and all the volunteers that provided the meal.
- Father Engelbrecht

Sacred Heart Roof Update!
In May, Sacred Heart Parish was made aware that in addition to the original amount of $32,000 to reroof the church, there would be the cost of $28,500 to install the proper underlayment. Since the announcement, I am happy to report that the generous contribution of our parishioners has totaled $20,695. So we are well on our way to reach our goal. To help us reach that goal you can make a contribution in your improvement fund envelope or simply write “For the Roof” on an envelope and drop it in the collection. I wish to offer a word of thanks to those who have already responded and thanks in advance to those that are planning to contribute. I will update as we go along.
