Sunday Memo FROM OUR PASTOR

To the Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Diocese of Peoria:

Think of a time when someone dear to you visited. Do you remember the joy of greeting them at the door? Doors have such rich symbolism, including in our Catholic faith and especially in this Holy Year of Mercy. Today, I invite you to open a door to your family of faith by receiving and supporting our excellent diocesan newspaper, The Catholic Post.

Throughout the year, The Catholic Post brings important guests and delivers vital messages to thousands of homes via mailboxes, computers and mobile devices. Recent stories have introduced a seminarian from Monmouth now serving the U.S. Army in Afghanistan, a girl from Eureka who gave away her Christmas presents to help the less fortunate, and a man who inspired many others by handcrafting a new altar for the church in Andalusia. Through award-winning photos, stories and columns that inform, inspire and unite, The Catholic Post truly is a "Doorway to Your Family of Faith."

I encourage all Catholic households in the Diocese of Peoria to open that door today by contributing to The Catholic Post's 2016 Delivering Unity Campaign. The subscription price remains at $29, but larger gifts are welcomed as a practical way to evangelize and help others live their faith in today's culture. Subscribe online at The Catholic Post's newly re-designed website, thecatholicpost.com, or send a check made out to The Catholic Post to 419 NE Madison Ave, Peoria, IL 61603. More information, including an envelope, will appear in the Feb 14th issue of the paper.

Thanking you for your support and assuring you of my prayers, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel R. Jenky C.S.C.
Bishop of Peoria

Lenten Season

We participate in Lent through our prayers, fasting (giving up food, sweets, television etc.) and almsgiving (doing good for another). Let us consider how the Lord is calling us to keep the season holy so as to have the best ever Easter.
