Sunday Memo FROM OUR PASTOR

At this time, we would like to convey our best wishes to Darrel DeDecker, more commonly known as Bump, as he retires from his position as Parish Custodian. On behalf of St. Anthony's, we wish to express our deep gratitude for his nearly twenty-five years of service to the parish. This gratitude is extended to Henrietta for her part in assisting Bump around the parish. Usually, ladies say, "I don't do windows!" but Henrietta has sure done her fair share. So we thank you! It goes without saying that so much that you have done for the parish is "behind the scenes" and hidden. However, because of your dedication, Bump, tasks were accomplished, spaces were clean, missalettes were changed and all this and much more meant the day-to-day successful operation of St. Anthony Parish to the honor and glory of God. So with many thanks we wish you well and be assured of our continued prayers.

- Father Engelbrecht
