March 23, 2020

My dear friends in Christ,

Holy Week and Easter rank as the most important moments we celebrate as believers of Jesus Christ. As important as these great celebrations are for the proclaiming and strengthening of our faith, it is with great sadness that I must announce that the suspension of public worship will continue through Easter Sunday.

The first words of the Risen Christ to his disciples were, "Peace be with you!" During this difficult and painful moment, we pray for the peace that only God can give. It is the peace that comes from having our sins forgiven and being united with God.

Beginning with Palm Sunday and continuing through Easter Sunday, these events will be streamed live through the diocesan website: www.cdop.org. A specific schedule will be announced in the days ahead. If your own parish will not be broadcasting these Masses, I invite you to join in the ones we will be making available through the Internet. It won't be the same as being together, in person; but it enables us to be united in ways that the current times make possible.

In these difficult times when we each have to carry our own personal crosses, we do so in the hope of Easter glory. I ask your prayers for me and for your priests. Please know that I am holding you close to my heart and I am praying for you daily.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

✠Most Reverend Daniel R. Jenky, C.S.C.
Bishop of Peoria

As you can appreciate, in this time we continue to receive bills that have to be paid, in spite of having no Sunday collections. So, in your charity it would greatly be appreciated if you would send in contributions in the mail. Each parish can send their Sunday contribution to: PO Box 210, Atkinson IL 61235.

Thank you for your generosity.

A big thank you to all those who helped clean and sanitize both Sacred Heart and St. Anthony's in the past couple of weeks. Your time and generosity is greatly appreciated.

[Christ Jesus] humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.
-Philippians 2:8

Parishioners of St. Anthony & Sacred Heart:

With the Shelter-in-Place Order for the State of Illinois, beginning at 5 pm on Saturday, March 21st and continuing through Easter Sunday, we have been instructed to close and lock our churches. This is subject to change. I say that with a heavy heart knowing that it saddens me and our Bishop as well. He does this hoping to stem the tide of the virus, especially for the most vulnerable, and I pray it does. We are also instructed to close our parish office for the duration of this time and postpone baptisms. Bonnie & Valerie, our parish secretary and bookkeeper, will be checking email and will help from home. I will still be available for those who need immediate attention and those who are near death.

In addition to the directives passed on to us from the State of Illinois through the Vicar General, the Vicar General informs us that, “As we look toward the near future, we are announcing that the suspension of public worship will definitely remain in place through Easter Sunday.”

I invite all parishioners to join in prayer with the Mass, which will continue to be offered privately. This is the most important event in our parish-es and the world each and every day—Jesus’ eternal prayer to the Father is an outpouring of God’s grace, mercy, and healing power. It is the source of life and strength for each of us as Christians, and although one may not be able to be present at Mass and/or receive Holy Communion, a person can unite himself to Jesus and the Mass and offer a Spiritual Communion.

I urge all parishioners to keep Lord’s Day holy with prayer, especially with the readings for the Mass of the day (see <http://uscgb.org/bible/index.cfm>) and the rosary. Watching televised Masses is also possible for some (e.g. EWTN—Eternal Word Television Network).

Please know you are remembered in my daily prayers and private Masses.

Father Engelbrecht

Here are some prayers for Spiritual Communion:

Prayers of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.—St. Alphonsus Ligouri.

At Your feet, O my Jesus, I prostrate myself and I offer You repentance of my contrite heart, which is humbled in its nothingness and in Your holy presence. I adore You in the Sacrament of Your love, the ineffable Eucharist. I desire to receive You into the poor dwelling that my heart offers You. While waiting for the happiness of sacramental communion, I wish to possess You in spirit. Come to me, O my Jesus, since I, for my part, am coming to You! May Your love embrace my whole being in life and in death. I believe in You, I hope in You, I love You. Amen.—Raphael Cardinal Merry del Val

May Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament be praised, adored, and loved at every moment in all the Tabernacles of the world even to the end of time. Amen—Anonymous.

Eternal Father, I offer You the most precious blood of thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal Church, for those in my own home, and those in my own family. Amen.—St. Gertrude the Great.

Even though this is the most unusual Holy Week of our lives, it is worth considering a few thoughts about these days that are central to our Lives of Grace.

Palm Sunday of the Lord’s Passion. We begin Holy Week concluding with the Sacred Triduum, the holiest days of the Christian Calendar. So let us take advantage of the deep significance, beauty and meaning of these days and enter into them with an open spirit. To the right you will find a Timepiece of our Lord’s Passion to recall the hours before His death. Palm Sunday begins by recalling Jesus’ triumphal entry into Jerusalem. However, the mood quickly changes to a focus on our Lord’s Passion. Please note that there will be blessed palms for those who wish to take them home, when we are able to return to public Masses.

Holy Thursday we celebrate the institution of the Priesthood and Holy Eucharist. On this holy night, we celebrate Jesus’ most Blessed Gift to the Church—the Gift of Himself in the Blessed Sacrament. In these days, where Masses are not celebrated publicly, we pray that our love for the gift of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament be more ardently loved and longed for. Holy Thursday night we also remember our Lord’s agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. As Jesus suffered this agony for us, may we be mindful and pray for those who are suffering from the pandemic of coronavirus.

Good Friday is called “Good” because it is the day that our Lord laid down His life for us sinners. The Passion is proclaimed and we venerate the “Wood of the Cross, on which hung the Savior of the world.”

Holy Saturday at the Easter Vigil, which begins at sunset, recalls the glorious Resurrection of Our Lord. Our paschal joy carries us through Easter Sunday, the Octave of Easter and the fifty days of the Easter Season.

As we walk through these days of our Lord’s Passion, Death and Resurrection may we be given an abundance of the theological virtues of faith, hope and love that will see us through this difficult time and look forward to the victory won by Christ and His cross.

- Fr. Engelbrecht

Novena Prayer to St. Rocco

O Great St. Rocco, deliver us, we beseech thee, from the scourges of God; through thy intercession, preserve our bodies from contagious diseases, and our souls from the contagion of sin. Obtain for us salubrious air; but, above all, purity of heart. Assist us to make good use of health, to bear suffering with patience; and, after thy example, to live in the practice of penance and charity, that we may one day enjoy the happiness which thou has merited by thy virtues.
