A story of conversion..... Kendra VonEsh will be held on Monday, August 29 Kendra thought she was living the dream — executive career, houses, boats, great family, friends and indulging in every comfort she could find. But she constantly compared herself to others and tried to “find something more” in alcohol, drugs, food and other destructive behaviors which made her feel even worse. Then God found her in 2013 when she least expected it and He flipped her reality upside down. Kendra left her executive career to share the joy, peace and love she found with God and the beautiful Catholic Church. Kendra uses all forms of media to help others deepen their relationship with God. She is a speaker, author, faith coach, radio host, podcaster and social media enthusiast. Find out more about her faith services, podcasts, events and media appearances at www.kendravonesh.com. Doors open: 6pm Rosary: 6:30 pm Talk: 7pm Kendra’s books will be available for purchase Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, 800-17th St., Silvis, IL 61282 No cost to attend, however, donations are greatly appreciated and a free will offering will be taken up.

The Geneseo-Atkinson food pantry is open: Mondays 9:00am to 7:00 pm; Tuesdays 9:00am to 4:00 pm; and Fridays 9:00am to 12:00pm. We have collection boxes in the vestibule at Fareway and at Inspire Continuing Care for food and personal care items. Any residents of Geneseo or Atkinson may shop once a week in the clothing room on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays. Food needs for the month are: Coffee, salsa, canned pineapple, rackers, and mayonnaise. Non-food needs include: garbage bags, freezer bags, foil, dryer sheets all-purpose cleaner, fans and air conditioners.

Emmaus Days is a summer program for young men sponsored by the Diocese of Peoria. By providing an exciting, spiritually enriching environment, we help participants become more aware of God’s presence in their lives and get excited about living their faith. At the heart of this discovery process lies the development of a healthy spirituality. Emmaus Days is full of opportunities to pray and learn, from Confession and Eucharistic Adoration to a variety of devotions like the Rosary and Scapular. Participants are also given the chance to interact with priests, seminarians and others their own age, both in serious spiritual matters and many lighthearted activities. Other camps, athletics, and activities will become a distant memory over the years. But what happens on the road to Emmaus is never forgotten!

St. Malachy’s Geneseo, will be holding a Totus Tuus Summer Program July 24-July 29 for grades 1-12. Middle School and High School students will have a program in the evenings Sunday-Thursday from 7-9 pm, while Grades 1-6 will be Monday-Friday from 9am-3pm. Cost is $35 per student and includes a t-shirt. Registration is due by July 6 to guarantee a t-shirt but registrations will be taken up until July 24. Registration forms can be found at <https://www.saintmalachy.org/YouthMinistry/TotusTuusEveningProgram.aspx>. For more information contact Kimberly Souba at ksouba@stmalageneseo.org.

Readings for the Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Genesis 18:20-32, Psalm 138: 1-3, 6-8, Colossians 2:12-14, Luke 11: 1-13,

Though we be “but dust and ashes,” we can presume to draw near and speak boldly to our Lord, as Abraham dares to do in this week’s First Reading. But even Abraham—the friend of God (see Isaiah 41:8), our father in the faith (see Romans 4:12)—did not know the intimacy that we know as children of Abraham, heirs of the blessings promised to his descendants (see Galatians 3:7, 29). The mystery of prayer, as Jesus reveals to His disciples in this week’s Gospel, is the living relationship of beloved sons and daughters with their heavenly Father. Our prayer is pure gift, made possible by the “good gift” of the Father—the Holy Spirit of His Son. It is the fruit of the New Covenant by which we are made children of God in Christ Jesus (see Galatians 4:6-7; Romans 8:15-16). Through the Spirit given to us in Baptism, we can cry to Him as our Father—knowing that when we call He will answer. Jesus teaches His disciples to persist in their prayer, as Abraham persisted in begging God’s mercy for the innocent of Sodom and Gomorrah. For the sake of the one just Man, Jesus, God spared the city of man from destruction (see Jeremiah 5:1; Isaiah 53), “obliterating the bond against us,” as Paul says in this week’s Epistle, “On the Cross, Jesus bore the guilt of us all. He canceled the debt we owed to God, the death we deserved to die for our transgressions. We pray as ones who have been visited in our affliction and saved from our enemies, as ones who have been spared. We pray always a prayer of thanksgiving, which is the literal meaning of “Eucharist.” We have realized the promise of this week’s Psalm: we worship in His holy temple, in the presence of angels, hallowing His name. In confidence we ask, knowing that we will receive, that He will bring to completion what He has done for us—raising us from the dead, bringing us to everlasting life along with Him.
