A story of conversion..... Kendra VonEsh will be held on Monday, August 29 Kendra thought she was living the dream — executive career, houses, boats, great family, friends and indulging in every comfort she could find. But she constantly compared herself to others and tried to “find something more” in alcohol, drugs, food and other destructive behaviors which made her feel even worse. Then God found her in 2013 when she least expected it and He flipped her reality upside down. Kendra left her executive career to share the joy, peace and love she found with God and the beautiful Catholic Church. Kendra uses all forms of media to help others deepen their relationship with God. She is a speaker, author, faith coach, radio host, podcaster and social media enthusiast. Find out more about her faith services, podcasts, events and media appearances at www.kendravonesh.com. Doors open: 6pm Rosary: 6:30 pm Talk: 7pm Kendra’s books will be available for purchase Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, 800-17th St, Silvis, IL 61282 No cost to attend, however, donations are greatly appreciated and a free will offering will be taken up.

Readings for the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10, Psalm 40:2-4, 18, Hebrews 12:1-4, Luke 12:49-53

Our God is a consuming fire, the Scriptures tell us (see Hebrews 12:29; Deuteronomy 4:24). And in this week’s Gospel, Jesus uses the image of fire to describe the demands of discipleship. The fire He has come to cast on the earth is the fire that He wants to blaze in each of our hearts. He made us from the dust of the earth (see Genesis 2:7) and filled us with the fire of the Holy Spirit in Baptism (see Luke 3:16). We were baptized into His death (see Romans 6:3). This is the baptism our Lord speaks of in the Gospel this week. The baptism with which He must be baptized is His passion and death, by which He accomplished our redemption and sent forth the fire of the Spirit on the earth (see Acts 2:3). The fire has been set, but it is not yet blazing. We are called to enter deeper into the consuming love of God. We must examine our consciences and our actions, submitting ourselves to the revealing fire of God’s Word (see 1 Corinthians 3:13). In our struggle against sin, we have not yet resisted to the point of shedding our own blood, Paul tells us in this week’s Epistle. We have not undergone the suffering that Jeremiah suffers in the First Reading this week. But this is what true discipleship requires. To be a disciple is to be inflamed with the love of the God. It is to have an unquenchable desire for holiness and zeal for the salvation of our brothers and sisters. Being His disciple does not bring peace in the false way that the world proclaims peace (see Jeremiah 8:11). It means division and hardship. It may bring us to conflict with our own flesh and blood. But Christ is our peace (see Ephesians 2:14). By His Cross He has lifted us up from the mire of sin and death—as He will rescue the prophet Jeremiah (see Jeremiah 38:10).
