A story of conversion..... Kendra VonEsh will be held on Monday, August 29 Kendra thought she was living the dream — executive career, houses, boats, great family, friends and indulging in every comfort she could find. But she constantly compared herself to others and tried to “find something more” in alcohol, drugs, food and other destructive behaviors which made her feel even worse. Then God found her in 2013 when she least expected it and He flipped her reality upside down. Kendra left her executive career to share the joy, peace and love she found with God and the beautiful Catholic Church. Kendra uses all forms of media to help others deepen their relationship with God. She is a speaker, author, faith coach, radio host, podcaster and social media enthusiast. Find out more about her faith services, podcasts, events and media appearances at www.kendravonesh.com. Doors open: 6pm
 Rosary: 6:30 pm Talk: 7pm Kendra’s books will be available for purchase Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, 800-17th St, Silvis, IL 61282 No cost to attend, however, donations are greatly appreciated and a free will offering will be taken up.

The Geneseo-Atkinson food pantry is open: Mondays 9:00am to 7:00 pm: Tuesdays 9:00am to 4:00 pm; and Fridays 9:00am to 12:00pm. We have collection boxes in the vestibule at Fareway and at Inspire Continuing Care for food and personal care items. Any residents of Geneseo or Atkinson may shop once a week in the clothing room on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays.

The food pantry distributed school supplies to 109 students in the Geneseo School District. This number of students was more than twice as many as last year.

Food pantry is accepting empty egg cartons and clean plastic or paper bags. We also need children’s clothing and small appliances.

Food needs: sugar, oil, vinegar, cereal and salad dressing. Non food needs are Laundry soap, shampoo, conditioner, dish soap, and Kleenex.

If your family, business or organization would like to donate ingredients for a Thanksgiving basket for our guests we have a list of items available that can be donated. Thanksgiving baskets will be packed on November 15th.

Readings for the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29, Psalm 68:4-7,10-11, Hebrews 12:18-19,22-24, Luke 14: 7-14

We come to the wedding banquet of heaven by way of humility and charity. This is the fatherly instruction we hear in today’s First Reading, and the message of today’s Gospel. Jesus is not talking simply about good table manners. He is revealing the way of the kingdom, in which the one who would be greatest would be the servant of all (see Luke 22:24-27). This is the way, too, that the Father has shown us down through the ages—filling the hungry, sending the rich away empty, lifting up the lowly, pulling down the proud (see Luke 1:52-53). We again call to mind the Exodus in today’s Psalm—how in His goodness the Lord led the Israelites from imprisonment to prosperity, rained down bread from heaven, made them His inheritance, becoming a “Father of orphans.” We now have also gained a share of His inheritance. We are to live humbly, knowing we are not worthy to receive from His table (see Luke 6:7; 15:21). We are to give alms, remembering we were ransomed from sin by the price of His blood (see 1 Corinthians 6:19-20). The Lord promises that if we are humble we will be exalted and find favor with God; that if we are kind to those who can never repay us, we will atone for sins and find blessing in the resurrection of the righteous. We anticipate the fulfillment of those promises in every Eucharist, today’s Epistle tells us. In the Mass, we enter the festal gathering of the angels and the firstborn children of God. It is the liturgy of the heavenly Jerusalem in which Jesus is the high priest, the King who calls us to come up higher (see Proverbs 25:6-7).
