The parish office is finalizing the SA Parish Circle List. The list will be mailed out in the next week. Every family is a member of a Circle. A letter, along with the list will be mailed to all parishioners and Circle Chairmen. If you receive a letter, and are no longer a parishioner at St. Anthony's, please contact the office. Chairmen cannot take you off of the circle list. Circle members are asked to help with cleaning of the church, a parish event/fundraiser and helping with funeral luncheons. We thank you for your continued support and contributions for St. Anthony's.

We at St. Anthony's want to take this opportunity to thank Mary Kay Franks for her faithful dedication as Sacristan for over 10 years. The beauty of the altar through all the liturgical seasons has been magnified by her artistry and hard work. These often "behind the scenes" efforts are truly appreciated and may God reward you. Mary Kay truly loved her job, and for that we were truly blessed. Please take time to congratulate Mary Kay for her dedicated service to St. Anthony's.

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as our own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child

We Praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life- especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all Things.

Amen

Readings for the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time: Isaiah 8:9-3, Psalm 27:1,4,13-14, 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17, Matthew 4:12-23

Today's Liturgy gives us a lesson in ancient Israelite geography and history. Isaiah's prophecy in today's First Reading is quoted by Matthew in today's Gospel. Both intend to recall the apparent fall of the everlasting kingdom promised to David (see 2 Samuel 7:12-13; Psalm 89; Psalm 132:11-12). Eight centuries before Christ, that part of the kingdom where the tribes of Zebulun and Naphtali lived was attacked by the Assyrians, and the tribes were hauled off into captivity (see 2 Kings 15:29; 1 Chronicles 5:26). It marked the beginning of the kingdom's end. The Davidic empire finally crumbled in the sixth century BC, when Jerusalem was seized by Babylon and the remaining tribes were driven into exile (see 2 Kings 24:14). Isaiah prophesied that Zebulun and Naphtali, the lands first to be degraded, would be the first to see the light of God's salvation. Jesus today fulfills that prophecy—announcing the restoration of David's kingdom at precisely the spot where the kingdom began to fall. His gospel of the Kingdom includes not only the twelve tribes of Israel but all the nations—symbolized by the “Galilee of the Nations.” Calling His first disciples, two fishermen on the Sea of Galilee, He appoints them to be “fishers of men,” gathering people from the ends of the earth. They are to preach the gospel, Paul says in today's Epistle, to unite all peoples in the same mind and in the same purpose—in a worldwide kingdom of God. By their preaching, Isaiah's promise has been delivered. A world in darkness has seen the light. The yoke of slavery and sin, borne by humanity since time began, has been smashed. And we are able now, as we sing in today's Psalm, to dwell in the house of the Lord, to worship Him in the land of the living.
