Annual Diocesan Appeal

Last Week to turn in!

LET'S GET OVER THE TOP!! In order to reach our ADA goals, we will be placing monopoly money on a board. Boards will be displayed signifying the remaining balance of each parish's goal, in the back of each perspective church. For those who have not yet donated, or for those who would like to help a little more, please pick up a denomination that signifies the amount you can assist with. Once the boards are cleared of the monopoly money our goals will be met. Envelopes are provided, near the boards for your use. These may be returned in the collection basket. Please write checks payable to Diocese Of Peoria. Thank you for your generosity. Deadline to send in ADA donations is Aug. 20th!

St. Anthony Remaining Balance: $8,265.97

Sacred Heart Remaining Balance: $2,076

Reminder - both parishes are required to pay the remaining balance. Please help each parish reach our goals.

St. Anthony's Altar & Rosary Society will meet on Tuesday, August 22, 2023 at 6:30 pm. at the parish hall. All ladies of the parish 18 years of age and up are invited to attend. There will be a salad supper and we will be planning activities for the year. We look forward to seeing you there!

St. Malachy's, Geneseo is hosting an 11 week Bible Study: First Corinthians: The Church and the Christian Community by Tim Gray. Sessions will run from the week of August 22nd until November 2nd. Sessions are on Tuesdays at 9 am or Thursdays at 6:30 pm. There is a workbook for this study that will be available to be purchased for $28.00. There are scholarships available to help pay for the workbook if needed. The conflicts of the early Christians in Corinth are in many ways similar to our struggles today as Christians. With Divisions, immorality, persecution, and other trials of the faithful, the message of St. Paul to the Corinthians is a much-needed message for our own times This First Corinthians bible study explores the key elements that the apostle Paul introduced to a new and growing Church. St. Paul taught the Corinthians about the nature of grace and the Church as the Body of Christ. In addition, he introduced the Corinthian Christians to the most powerful gift of all, the Eucharist, which along with Christian virtue leads to a life of joy. Please contact the office if you would like to participate in the study and order a workbook. 309-944-5393.

Bereavement Support Group: If you have lost a loved one, St. Malachy Bereavement Ministry is here to help. We are group of compassionate and concerned parishioners who would like to offer our friendship to you during this very difficult time. We are not professional counselors, rather people just like you who have either experienced grief ourselves or have compassion for those who have suffered the loss of a loved one. We are offering a 6 week Circle of Healing program in a group setting. Each session will last about 1.5 hours and will feature a weekly program and sharing. No one will be required to speak or share at these sessions if they chose not to do so. We pray that you will reach out to us so that we might offer that hand of Christ's love to you. These 6 sessions will start on Tues. August 8th at 6:30 pm in the main conference room and runs until September 11th. If you are interested in attending or have questions please contact Deacon Art Ries at 945-2734.

Reflection for Nineteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time: Readings: 1 Kings 19:9, 11-13; Psalm 85:9-14; Romans 9:1-5; Matthew 14:22-33

How do we find God in the storms and struggles of our lives, in the trials we encounter in trying to do His will? God commands Elijah in today's First Reading to stand on the mountain and await His passing by. And in the Gospel, Jesus makes the disciples set out across the waters to meet Him. In each case, the Lord makes Himself present amid frightening tumult—heavy winds and high waves, fire and earthquakes. Elijah hides his face. Perhaps he remembers Moses, who met God on the same mountain, also amid fire, thunder, and smoke (see Deuteronomy 4:10-15; Exodus 19:17-19). God told Moses no one could see His face and live, and He sheltered Moses in the hollow of a rock, as He shelters Elijah in a cave (see Exodus 33:18-23). The disciples, likewise, are too terrified to look on the face of God. Today's Gospel is a revelation of Jesus' divine identity. Only God treads across the crest of the sea (see Job 9:8) and rules the raging waters (see Psalm 89:9-10). And the words of assurance that Jesus speaks—"It is I"—are those God used to identify Himself to Moses (see Exodus 3:14; Isaiah 43:10). Even Peter is too overcome by fear to imitate his Lord. His fears, Jesus tells him, are a sign of his lack of faith. And so it often is with us. Our fears make us doubt, make it hard to see His glory dwelling in our midst. Yet, we should know, as we sing in today's Psalm, that His salvation is near to those who hope in Him. By faith we should know, as Paul asserts in today's Epistle, that we are heirs to the promises made to His children, Israel. We must trust that He whispers to us in the trials of our lives—that He who has called us to walk along the way of His steps—save us whenever we begin to sink.
